I'M A CALGARIAN

I TOO ENJOY CALGARY'S FOOD SCENE.

Bobcats have adapted well to life in Calgary and play an important role in the food chain. If you see one, you're lucky – they are more interested in hunting rodents than interacting with humans.

BOBCAT

ADMIRE ME FROM A DISTANCE.
I like to keep to myself and appreciate the space.

KEEP PETS CLOSE, I'M JUST PASSING THROUGH.
Big dogs can harm me, while cats and very small dogs, on the other hand, look like a tasty meal. Please keep your pets secure.

DON'T FEED ME OR OTHER WILDLIFE.
I like hunting and stay healthiest when I find my own food.
